BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are centained the views, moderately, though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three great parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical. "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review," Whig; and the "Westminster Review," Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge; it was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being, in fact, a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage by this combination of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued.

issued.

The above periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals, Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac-simile of the Edinburgh edition.

PROSPECTUS

"THE SOUTHERN PRESS."

A N ASSOCIATION of sixty-three members of Congress, Senators and Representatives, have constituted the undersigned a committee to superintend the establishment of a Southern Press at Washington city, to be devoted to the exposition and defence of southern rights and institutions, the dissemination of correct information as to norther policy, and the course of political affairs generally, without reference to the old party lines of Whig and Democrat. Arrangements are now in progress promptly to insure the issue of such a paper, under the title of

All the articles furnished and work executed must be of the best quality, delivered without delay, when ordered, and to the satisfaction of the head of the office for which they are required.

If it be required, each bidder for Stationery must furnish with his proposal a sample of each article bid for.

To ensure uniformity in the proposale, blank furnish with his proposal a sample of each article bid for.

To ensure uniformity in the proposals, blank forms will be furnished to those disposed to bid; and no bid will be considered which does not fully conform to the advertisement, and in which each and every article is not bid for, and in which more than one price is named for any one article.

Bonds in sufficient amount, with two or more approved sureties for the faithful execution of the contract, will be required of the person or persons contracting. The authorized names of the sureties that will be given, as also satisfactory teatimonials to fulfil the contract, must accompany the bid; otherwise it will not be considered.

The Department reserves to itself the right of ordering a greater or less quantity of each and every article contracted for, as the public service may require.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE

And the British Quarterly Reviews.

PREMIUMS TO NEW SUBSCHIBERS!

O WING to the late revolutions and counter revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. The American Publishers, therefore, deem it proper to call renewed attention to these Periodicals, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.
In these periodicals are centained the views, mod-

Permanent Fund by Act of Incorporation. $200,000. Permanent Fund by Act of Incorporation, $200,000.

Office No. 38 Camp Street, between Gravier and Common streets.

This permanent fund to be invested as per charter for the benefit of the policy holders, in bonds and mortgages on unincumbered real estate valued at double the amount loaned thereon, and in stocks of the State, and of the United States government.

This company being organized not for the benefit of stockholders and capitalists, but solely for the protection of the policy holders and their families against want and poverty, is in its operations a great national benevolent institution, conducted upon the most secure and solid principles, and affording, for a small annual sum, paid during life, a large and handsome legacy to widows and childer after death.

All policy holders, whether for life or for shorter terms, who continue the insurance till death, participate in the whole of the profits of the company, without any reservation.

Creditors can insure the lives of debtors, thus securing a prompt settlement in case of death. A married woman can effect insurance on the life of her husband, for the sole benefit and use of herself and children, free from the claims of creditors.

TRANSPORTATION OF STORES.

NAVY DEPARTMENT.

Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, June 7, 1850. \

PROPOSALS, sealed and endorsed "Proposals for freight to the coast of Africa," will be received at this bureau until 12 o'clock, m., on Friday, the 5th day of July, 1850, for the transportation of 1,700 barrels (more or less) of Government stores, from the navy-yard at Charlestown, Massachusetts, to the consignee on shore, at Port Praya, Cape de Verde.

The offers must state the price asked per barrel, without distinction between wet and dry; and each barrel (or two half barrels) of beef, pork, flour, rice, vinegar, pickles, molasses, whisky, or dried apples, will be considered as a barrel; all other packages to be estimated at the rate of 5½ cubic feet to a barrel, whatever they may contain; and in the measurement of all casks other than barrels, the fifths will be deducted. Ten fair-weather working lay days to be allowed at the port of Charlestown for taking in cargo, and fifteen fair-weather working lay days to be allowed at Port Praya for discharging the same. No primage to be allowed.

Payment to be made by any navy agent in the United States, to be selected by the bidder, and designated in the charter-party, within thirty days after producing satisfactory evidence of the delivery of the cargo. The vessel must pass the usual inspection, and be at the Charlestown navy-yard by the 10th day of July, 1850, ready to receive her cargo; and if not presented for examination within three days after being notified of her acceptance, the bureau will consider itself at liberty to offer the freight to the next lowest bidder, or to make such arrangements as may best subserve the public interest.

LAW SCHOOL OF HARVARD COLLEGE.
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.
THIS Institution affords a complete course of legal education for the Bar in any of the United States, excepting only matters of merely local law and practice; and also a systematic course of instruction in Commercial Law for those who propose to engage in Mercantile pursuits.

The Law Library, which is constantly increasing, contains now about 14,000 volumes. It includes a very complete collection of American and English Law, and the principal works of the Civil and other foreign Law. It is open to students, and warmed and lighted for their use during both terms and vacations.

The first term of each academical year begins in the last week of August, and the second Term in the last week of February; each term continues twenty weeks. Students are admitted at any period of a term or vacation. The fees are $50 a Term, and $25 for half a Term. For this sum students have the use of the Law Library and text books, and of the College Library, and may attend all the courses of public lectures delivered to the undergraduates of the University.

The instructors of the Law School are Hon. Jost Parker, LL. D., Royal Professor; Hon. Theoprillus Parker, LL. D., Royal Professor; Hon. Frederick H. Aller, University Professor, and Hon. Luther S. Cushing, Lecturer upon Parliamentary Law, the Civil Law, and Criminal Law. Instruction is given by lectures, recitations, and examinations, and Moot Courts.

For farther information application may be made to either of the Instructors.
